

Hampshire High School Striving for Excellence

Patty Wygal, Vice President of FNB, presented David Chaney, son of Mr. & Mrs. William Chaney of Capon Bridge, this year's Striving for Excellence Award.

To be eligible for this award, students must maintain a high academic standing, be highly motivated, have a positive attitude toward school and life in general, and be well-rounded in his/her activities, as well as be goal-oriented and have a clear outlook on the future.

David's list of accomplishments includes being a member of National Honor Society, Faith in Action, Rotary Student of the Month, as well as many hours of community service including being a team captain for the Hampshire County Relay for Life for the last three years.

He plans to attend Shepherd University to study Biology, and then apply to medical school.

Good luck in all you do, David!

FNB is proud to be the sponsor of this prestigious award.

GED Graduation

The Adult Basic Education & General Educational Development (GED) programs held their graduation in the auditorium at Hampshire High School on May 22, 2012. Although 42 students received their GED this year, with about half participating in the graduation ceremony.

This year there were two top graduate awards. Both awards were presented for scores in the 3,000s. The recipients were Austin Orndorff and Katherine Graves. They also received a pin, clock gift set and a $50 gift card.

Music was provided by pianist Aaron Fields and approximately 150 people were on hand to support their friends and family and help celebrate the accomplishments of all the GED graduates.
