34th Knight of Olde Hampshire

Hampshire County native, Patty Davis, was chosen as the 34th Knight of Olde Hampshire.

Patty has successfully battled cancer since 1999, when she was diagnosed with breast cancer, and after her retirement from UPS, she decided to advocate for cancer survivors.

She is currently the president of the Hampshire County Cancer Coalition, chairs the West Virginia Mountains of Hope Cancer Coalition and is a part of the Appalachia Community Cancer Network. She was also presented an award last year for her volunteer efforts from C-Change, which is a national organization coordinating the fight against cancer.

Patty lives just outside Romney with her husband, Mitch, and has a grown daughter named Tammy.

Congratulations, Patty!

Call it a clan, call it a network,
call it a tribe, call it a family.
Whatever you call it, whoever you are, you need one.

It's WARM THE CHILDREN time again...

You can help provide warm winter clothing for needy area children. Your donations will help clothe hundreds of children in Hampshire County who may be cold this winter without your help.

The HAMPSHIRE COUNTY WARM THE CHILDREN FUND is neighbors helping neighbors. FNB Bank, The Bank of Romney, Hampshire Review, Romney Rotary and Eastern West Virginia Community Action are asking everyone to donate to the fund. The program is in its 19th year and has raised over $431,000 and clothed close to 4,800 needy children in Hampshire County.

There are no administrative fees, so every dollar raised is used to buy new, warm, winter clothing. Last year's goal of $25,000 was exceeded and over 300 needy children in Hampshire County were clothed. As a matter of fact, thanks to a lot of caring people, the $25,000 goal has been met and/or exceeded for the last several years during the months of October, November and December, no matter the economic conditions!

HOW CAN YOU HELP?

Complete the coupon on the bottom of this page and send it along with your donation to one of the addresses on the coupon, or drop it by any bank location. All donations are tax deductible. Please help warm the children of Hampshire County.
